

Olympic dreams

JUNIOR Sports Star of the Month

SWIMMING SENSATION: Fourteen-year-old Jack Benson is hoping to one day swim for Australia at the Olympic Games. Picture: Sports in Focus.

BY KRYSZYNA POLLARD

FOURTEEN-YEAR-OLD swimmer Jack Benson is well on his way to realising his dream of representing Australia at the Olympic Games.

Jackie Barck saw Jack's potential and ramped up his training, and he also started a gym program under James Sweeney at Atmosphere respectively at the 2016 NSW State Age Championships. "That was a big step in my swimming career, and I really picked up my swimming gained Jack selection on the NSW Development Squad for 2016. "I kept going after the age nationals because the school daton's (PVSF) junior sports star for September, and now has his sights firmly set on next year's Australian Age National Champion-after school with his goal in mind, and appreciates the support he gets from his coach and parents Franckne and Dean.